“History Hound” Dog Costume Contest
A Feature Event of the East TN History Fair

Saturday, August 20, 2016 | Krutch Park in Downtown Knoxville
9:30 a.m. Registration
10:15 a.m. Judging

(Knoxville, TN) Have a blast with the past at the East Tennessee History Fair! The “History Hound” Dog Costume Contest is a feature event of the 9th Annual East Tennessee History Fair being held on Saturday, August 20. Bring your canine companion in his best historic costume to have him crowned History Hound! Local celebrities will be judging your pet for “Most East Tennessee Spirit” and “Best Historic Costume.” Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. in Krutch Park in downtown Knoxville. The contest begins at 10:15 a.m. Some costume suggestions include a coal miner, Civil War soldier, Abe Lincoln, moonshiner, Davy Crockett, or a pioneer dog. The possibilities are endless! Free to the public to attend and participate, with fantastic prizes provided by PetSafe!

The 2016 East Tennessee History Fair is sponsored by Knoxville CBID, The Tennessee Arts Commission, Seven Islands Foundation, Strata-G, Clayton Bank & Trust, Mast General Store, City of Knoxville, WDVX, WVLT, Case Auctions, Tennessee Theatre, PetSafe, Comcast, and Food City. East Tennessee History Center, 601 S. Gay Street. For a detailed listing of events and times visit www.easttnhistory.org/historyfair or call 865-215-8824.
